Prince Muhammad bin Nayef Concludes U.S. Visit

WASHINGTON [October 7, 2009] – The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia's Assistant Minister of Interior for Security Affairs Prince Muhammad bin Nayof today concluded a three-day visit to the United States. Prince Muhammad met with senior U.S. officials, including President Barack Obama.

"The visit is part of ongoing consultations and exchange of views between the two countries," said Saudi Ambassador to the United States Adel A. Al-Jubeir.

In addition to the President, Prince Muhammad met with U.S. Attorney General Eric Holder; Secretary of Homeland Security Janet Napolitano; Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs William Burns; Commander, United States Central Command Gen. David Petracus; and other officials from specialized agencies.
